Building a Lasting Legacy

I received this email from Axis.org that really got me thinking. Parents play one of the biggest roles in shaping what their kids learn to value—not by controlling every choice, but by modeling what is good, true, and worth pursuing. This article encourages parents to be patient, create a safe space for honest conversations, and remember that the small moments of connection they build over time can leave a lasting legacy.

Summer Sunday School for Preschool-High School Sundays, 10:30am | Meets Upstairs in the Middle School Room

This summer, we're bringing our student ministry together for one Summer Sunday School experience focused on discipleship, friendship, and faith in action! We'll explore the Fruits of the Spirit through interactive lessons, games, and activities and have opportunities to serve others.

What to expect:

- Preschool-High School all together
- Older & younger student discipleship partnerships
- Fruits of the Spirit themed lessons, games, and activities

In June, we put our faith into action. Together, we made over 60 keychains to pass out at the Waterford nursing home. We shared God's kindness by passing them out and praying for each resident!

Summer Youth Group for 6th-12th Grade Thursdays in June & July

This summer, we're creating space for students to grow in faith, build friendships, and have a ton of fun along the way! Check out all the details by clicking the buttons below. If you ever need help with carpool or costs for events, please reach out! Friends are always invited.
